3. Public Comments
The Board of Directors welcomes members of the public to address the Modesto D.I.D. Board on matters of concern that fall within the jurisdiction of the Board that are not on the agenda. Speakers are encouraged to consult with Modesto D.I.D. management prior to agenda preparation regarding any Modesto D.I.D. operation or responsibility. In accordance with the Brown Act, no action can be taken on non-agenda issues. Though not required, speakers may provide their name and address. Since these are non-agenda items, no discussion or comment by the Board should be expected except to properly refer matters for review or action, as appropriate. Public Comments will be limited to five minutes per speaker.
